Pick Comfy Seating

This eclectic Parisian apartment is a breath of fresh air. Not only does it prove that you can use a wallpaper mural in a minimalist environment, but it's also the perfect example of how to design a living room that's both fun and relaxed, sophisticated and formal. The key? Seating needs to be comfortable, and materials need to be casual but clean.

Play with Shape and Colour

The more unique, the bigger the statement when it comes to wall decor and art. A good way to switch things up is by choosing artwork that doesn't live within the confined borders of a rectangular or square frame. We're also loving the colourful nesting coffee tables and ombre carpet for a subtle bit of fun in this living room.

Make it Cheerful

From the fun pillows and ottoman, elegant gilt mirror, and bright blue walls, this space is perfect for low key nights in or more formal gatherings.

And the pleated yellow lamp is what really makes the living room feel cheerful and cozy.

Keep It Classic and Crisp

A crisp, matte white living room is pristine, elegant, and timeless. Adding glass and metallic features sharpens up the white pieces.

Bring Some Texture to the Walls

If you love the soft look and feel of upholstered walls but don't want to embark on that major of a project then try a fabric-effect wallpaper or a grasscloth.

In this living room, it suits the warm leather and brass pieces wonderfully, while the blue painted accents cool things off.

Adding a ladder for high shelves adds another decorative touch.

Add A Rocking Chair

Chairs that look good but are totally uncomfortable? Not worth the cute factor. Besides, here's definitive proof that rocking chairs can actually be super chic. The camel leather contrasts perfectly with cream wall and plays up the old-time-y rustic feel of the reclaimed wood mantle.

Bring the Fun to the Floor

When you have crisp white walls and neutral staples, like a sofa and coffee table, choose one statement item that brings in a surge of colourful energy.

It can be anything from a vibrant piece of art on the walls to a bright carpet like this one in a living room.

Set Up a Few Sitting Areas

This rustic great room was built to resemble a converted barn. If you're blessed with a large enough open plan living room, set up multiple sitting areas. One for hanging and snacking, one for cuddling up with a good book, and one for formal entertaining.

Be Playful

This hot pink fireplace was inspired by the homeowners' grandmother's favorite shade of lipstick.

Have fun with little details like that and look for inspiration everywhere!

If painting your entire living room a bold colour sounds intimidating, opt for a statement wall or mantle.

Add Candles

Can you imagine how beautiful this room looks glowing in the candlelight? Opt for a chandelier with candles instead of lightbulbs for a rustic vibe. Or, if that's not an option, display them on your mantel and light them up when you need to strike a romantic mood. (Use flameless candles to play it safe).

Conceal Your TV

Whenever you see a picture of a totally aspirational living room, it's completely devoid of a television. Add a bifold-panel painting that hides your television behind gorgeous art. Oh, and swivel chairs are a must.
